Sadqe ke zarie rizq talab karo

Imam Ja'far Al Sadiq (a.s.) was once travelling with some companions amongst whom were some businessmen who had some goods with them. After some time they became aware that there were gangs of thieves who were waiting ahead planning to loot them. The companions of the Imam wondered what steps to take.

The Imam advised that the best step was to make intention of giving some of the goods in the way of Allah as Sadaqah or charity. This is what the companions did and when they passed the thieves, nothing happened to them. Charity had averted the danger in which they were.¹

MAHDI AND MAHDIYA LEARN ABOUT BIBI KHADIJAH

When the 10th of Ramadhan arrived, Mahdi and Mahdiya wore their black clothes to the mosque.

This was because it was the 'wafaat' of Bibi Khadijah.

Who was Bibi Khadijah?

Here's what Mahdi and Mahdiya learnt about Bibi Khadijah after listening to the lecture at the mosque.

Bibi Khadijah was a very rich woman in Makka and used to own many caravans and take care of the family business. She used to be known as 'the Princess of Makka'.

With the wealth she had, she helped the poor, the widows, the sick and the orphans of Makka.

Because of her excellent Akhlaq, the Arabs gave her the title 'Tahira' - the pure one.

Many Arab men wanted to marry her but she refused all of them.

Then once there came a time where Bibi Khadijah was looking for someone to take charge of her caravan. Hazrat Abu Talib, the Holy Prophet's uncle, suggested Prophet Muhammed(s.a.w.w.).

The trading caravan was a huge success. Bibi Khadijah was very impressed with Prophet Muhammed's character and asked him to marry her. The marriage was a very happy one.

Their first child was a son called Qassim and the second was Abdullah. Both of them died very young.

Their third and last child was Bibi Fatima (a.s).

Bibi Khadijah was the first woman to accept Islam and support the Holy Prophet(s.a.w.w). She gave all her wealth for the sake of Islam, which helped the Muslims survive for a long time.

Then in 619 AD, on the 10th of Ramadhan she left this world. The Holy Prophet(s.a.w.w) was very sad after she died as he loved her very much. Hazrat Abu Talib died in this year too and so the Holy Prophet(s.a.w.w) called it 'Aamul Huzn' - the year of sorrow.
